Our local tribe, the Yavapai-Prescott Indian Tribe, has a rich oral language tradition. Our membership levels have been named in cooperation with Yavapai-Prescott to honor their language. We appreciate the assistance of the Speaker's knowledge and the Cultural Research Department.

Support Prescott's only Native American Art and Culture Museum!

As a new member of the Museum of Indigenous People, you gain access to the world of American Indian culture. Classes, lectures, and a library are available to you. Your admission to the museum is free of charge. You'll discover the Trading Post gift shop, stocked full of Native-made arts and crafts and you'll receive a discount on all purchases. In addition, you'll receive advanced notice of upcoming events, programs, and educational opportunities, as well as invitations to special members-only events. Help us care for a unique assemblage of cultural resource materials which has been expanding since 1921. Come and join us! Explore the wealth of resources available to you and grow with us!
