

Museum of Indigenous People

Our mission is to instill understanding and respect for the indigenous cultures of the southwest. We accomplish our mission through our exhibits, educational programs, school and community outreach, special events, and being an institution of education where the Native voice is heard!

Admission:
 Adults $10, Seniors $8,
 Veterans $6,
 Students with ID $6.
 Kids under 12, Natives, &
 Members are Always FREE.

Contact the museum for additional information or to become a member!

Todd Westika, Zuni Stone Carver

The Museum of Indigenous People offers unique educational experiences for schools!
 Tours, Activities, Cultural Awareness, Lectures, Presentations, Prehistoric, Historic, and Contemporary Exhibits.

THANK

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE HUMANITIES

Experience Prescott
OFFICE OF TOURISM

Foothills Bank
Division of Glacier Bank
Consider it done.

Museum of Indigenous People is a 501(c)(3) organization.
www.museumofindigenouspeople.org

Museum of Indigenous People

2025 Calendar of Events

147 North Arizona Avenue
 Prescott, Arizona 86301
 928-445-1230

Monday-Saturday 10 AM to 4 PM

Please see website for updates.

February

3-6 and 10-13 Auction Consignment

Intake by appointment only.

March

14 Rug Auction Preview

Come see authentic Navajo rugs and genuine Native arts, and mark your favorites in your catalog from 3 to 5 PM.

15 Navajo Rug and Indian Art Auction

Day-of preview is from 9 AM to 11:30. All the auction action begins at noon. Free admission and free to register as a bidder. Over 300 lots at the best prices!

April

12 Indian Education Series

Manuel Lucero presents Who's an Indian, Anyway? Indigenous Identity at 1 PM in the Pueblo. Free Admission. Donations support our educational programs.

May

3 & 4 Mata Ortiz Show & Sale

Mata Ortiz potters visit the museum with their beautiful pieces to add to your collections. Pottery production and firing demonstrations will be held throughout the event, 10 AM to 4 PM each day.

June

Backpack Drive

Help the school children of Native rural communities gain confidence for the upcoming year with your donations.

Details at: www.museumofindigenouspeople.org

June

7 Indian Education Series

Dot and Emerson Ami present Our Life With Clay at 1 PM in the Pueblo. Free Admission. Donations support our educational programs.

16-19 Consignment Market Intake

Native arts and southwest décor consigned by appointment only.

23-26 Consignment Market Intake

Native arts and southwest décor consigned by appointment only.

July

12 Consignment Market

Remarkable deals from 10 AM to 3 PM in the Pueblo. Free admission.

19 Indian Education Series

JJ Otero presents Late to My Calling: From IT Management to My Jewelry Stump at 1 PM in the Pueblo. Free Admission. Donations support educational programs.

August

18-21 and 25-28 Auction Intake

Consignments accepted by appointment only in preparation for the Sept. 13 auction.

September

12 Auction Preview

View auction items from 3 to 5 PM.

13 Navajo Rug and Indian Art Auction

Preview is from 9 AM to 11:30. The auction begins at noon. Free admission and free to register as a bidder.

October

13 Indigenous People's Day

Free admission for all for this celebration of Native arts, food, music and dance.

November

15 First Fire Fall Fundraiser

Ticket sales begin in October for this catered event with a silent auction and entertainment.

December

1-13 Member's Sale

Members receive 20% discount on most items in our Trading Post!

5 & 6 Christmas Indian Art Market

10 AM to 4 PM. Free admission to meet dozens of Native artists. Holiday Shopping!

27 Storytellers

Native stories, a warm fire, hot cider, and homemade cookies., A beautiful event for families. 11 AM-3 PM in the Pueblo Building. Regular admission rates apply.

31 Sobriety Powwow

The public is invited to this Native gathering at GSMAC. Doors open at 2 PM.

